

2021 News Chronology - Beta 1.0

Supervising Editor: Eric F. Coppolino | Compiled by: Melissa DeGasperis

Dear Friend and Reader:

This is the beta version of our 2021 chronology. This is primarily a timeline of news events rather than the primary source research you may be accustomed to in our 2006-2020 chronology. It takes a while to organize this kind of document. Nearly all of it is sourced to articles collected on Covid19 News.

The purpose of our original timeline was to document events surrounding the claims that a new virus had been discovered, how that notion was supported, and that a PCR assay for SARS-CoV-2 had been developed. The issues went back to 2006 by one measure, and back to the claimed 1918-1919 outbreak of “influenza” by another.

What you are now reading is a document of vaccine genocide. By November 2020, there was no way to claim, even meekly, that there was still a pandemic. Of course, once you understand what happened during the prior 10 months, it’s clear that there never was one. In the U.S., excess deaths were recorded in only 16 states.

And they only begin after “mitigation measures” begin in mid-March. None were recorded in Canada. If there is a contagion on the loose, it is not stopped by an imaginary line when people are crossing that line every hour of the day and night. States are political divisions, and people were killed by political decisions specific to their region.

By November 2020, even with a bogus test off-gassing nonexistent positives, the numbers coming out of Gov. Cuomo’s office indicated that claimed cases and hospitalizations were so low, they would need to be reported per 100,000 people instead of per 10,000 people as they had been all year. Instead of adding decimal places to their report, the governor’s office stopped sending them out.

That's when Cuomo, other governors and Canadian Mayor Justin Trudeau decided it was time to impose new lockdown measures. In New York, Cuomo ordered bars, restaurants and gymnasiums closed by 10 pm. How is it helpful to close a gym when it's empty? Well, it's helpful if you need headings and a "vaccine" is about to come out.

Sadly, the majority of our 2021 chronology documents battles between the government and the people, and between and among people, over the issue of who should be injected with an unknown mystery juice that CDC would admit had killed nearly 35,000 people by early 2023, and resulting in more than 194,000 hospitalizations and 1.5 million adverse event reports.

You will read how first-responders, nurses, doctors, and others who served through the 2020 crisis and survived it were forced to get injected or be fired the next year — and much else that will remind you of the agony that was the fake pandemic and genocide disguised as medical care and vaccination.

This edition was organized by Melissa DeGasperis, who also edits Covid19 News. I have not gone through and done proper copy editing and tuning up the formatting, though this document is wholly useful in its current form. I will have a new version soon enough. Please let us know if there are events we have missed.

Thanks for reading, and for your patience waiting for the 2021 compilation of events as reported by mainstream and alternative media, and as investigated by Planet Waves FM and Chiron Return.

Faithfully,

Events of 2021

January 1, 2021 — United States has exceeded 20 million total recorded 'covid' cases just hours after the new year. The nation has also allegedly set a 'covid' hospitalization record for four straight days. "We are still going to have our toughest and darkest days," Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti told CNN. Covid Tracking Project data shows more than 125,000 'covid' patients were in U.S. hospitals on New Years Day. [CNN]

Fauci speaks to Newsweek and states "I'm sure" some individual institutions will make coronavirus vaccinations mandatory, while it is "quite possible" that the COVID-19 vaccine could become a required travel vaccine when visiting other countries. [Newsweek]

January 2, 2021 — CDC says flu numbers are down 98 percent. Possible explanations include fewer people traveling, adherence to mask-wearing and social distancing, and more Americans getting the flu shot. [NBC]

January 3, 2021 — Dormant assembly bill A-416 introduced by Assemblyman Nick Perry (D-Brooklyn) that would allow authorities to detain people suspected of being a public health threat becomes subject of conspiracy theories. The bill was first introduced in 2015 when a nurse infected with Ebola refused to quarantine. [politico]

Pope Francis says he was "pained" and "saddened" some countries reported people were going on holiday to avoid 'covid' lockdowns. In his weekly noontime Sunday address Francis said, "I read in the papers something that quite saddened me: In a country — I don't remember which — to escape the lockdown and have a good vacation more than 40 planes took off that afternoon." [NYT]

Fauci states he didn't expect the death toll from 'covid' to be so high in U.S. "There is no running away from the numbers," Fauci told guest host Martha Raddatz on ABC's "This Week." It's something that we absolutely have got to grasp and get our arms around and turn that, turn that inflection down by very intensive adherence to the public health measures uniformly throughout the country with no exceptions," he added. Statistics held by John Hopkins University show that 350,215 deaths have been recorded in the United States so far, a number that has been quickly growing over the last two months. [The Hill]

January 4, 2021 — California 'covid' deaths and cases surge after holiday season gatherings and travel four times what they were during the state's summer stage. The state is facing an oxygen shortage for patients and has deployed the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers and the California Emergency Medical Services Authority to deliver and refill oxygen tanks. "This is a deadly disease, this is a deadly pandemic," Gov. Gavin Newsom told reporters. "It remains more deadly today than at any point in the history of the pandemic." Marianne Gausche-Hill, the medical director for Los Angeles County's E.M.S. agency, issued guidelines to emergency workers on Sunday for administering the "minimum amount of oxygen necessary" to keep patients' oxygen saturation level at or just above 90 percent. [NYT]

U.S. health officials report more than two-thirds of the 15 million covid vaccines shipped within the country have gone unused. New York and Florida governors say they will penalize hospitals that fail to dispense 'covid' shots quickly. New York Governor Andrew Cuomo states hospitals must administer vaccines within a week of receiving them or face a fine and a reduction in future supplies. "I don't want the vaccine in a fridge or a freezer, I want it in somebody's arm," the governor said. "If you're not performing this function, it does raise questions about the operating efficiency of the hospital." [reuters]

Nicholson Baker publishes "The Lab-Leak Hypothesis" in New York Magazine that investigates 'The Lab-Leak Hypothesis' and history of gain-of-function research since surprisingly, no public investigation on the origins of 'covid' has ever taken place. Baker wrote:

SARS-2 was not designed as a biological weapon. But it was, I think, designed. Many thoughtful people dismiss this notion, and they may be right. They sincerely believe that the coronavirus arose naturally, "zoonotically," from animals, without having been previously studied, or hybridized, or sluiced through cell cultures, or otherwise worked on by trained professionals. They hold that a bat, carrying a coronavirus, infected some other creature, perhaps a pangolin, and that the pangolin may have already been sick with a different coronavirus disease, and out of the conjunction and commingling of those two diseases within the pangolin, a new disease, highly infectious to humans, evolved.... There is no direct evidence for these zoonotic possibilities, just as there is no direct evidence for an experimental mishap — no written confession, no incriminating notebook, no official accident report. [NY Magazine]

Editor's Note: Interesting to note, NY Magazine has made an updated editorial note acknowledging how at the time of publication the topic was considered taboo across America, but has since been reconsidered with major investigations by U.S. Intelligence Community, WHO, The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal. — mmd

January 5, 2021 — A-416 in New York is not moving, according to Assemblyman Kevin Cahill's office. Eric Coppolino spoke with Assemblyman spokesperson who said that A-416, the medical internment camp bill is not scheduled for a vote and has not gone to committee. [Planet Waves]

North Carolina Governor Roy Cooper to mobilize National Guard to accelerate mass 'covid' vaccination rollout. The congressman was compelled to write a 600-word letter after a close friend of his passed away from 'covid'. "Our healthcare people do not need to be organizing it and doing the nuts and bolts of it. That's what our wonderful guard can do," Richardson said. [ABC]

January 6, 2021 — United States CDC says it will investigate the death of Dr. Gregory Michael who worked at Mount Sinai Medical Center in Miami Beach, Florida and died weeks after receiving the Pfizer 'covid' shot. CDC spokeswoman said the agency is aware of the reported death while Pfizer in a separate statement said it did not believe the death was vaccine related. "Our thoughts are with the family during this heartbreaking time," a CDC spokeswoman told CNN by email. "To date, more than 5 million people have received Covid-19 vaccines in the United States. CDC, FDA, and other federal agencies review Covid-19 vaccine safety monitoring data regularly and present this information to a work group of vaccine safety experts. These experts provide an independent review, as well as recommendations and guidance," she added. [CNN]

CDC publishes study that shows adverse reactions to covid vaccine with anaphylaxis is ten times higher than Flu shots, but that it is still "rare". "The anaphylaxis rate for Covid-19 vaccines may seem high compared to flu vaccines, but I want to reassure you that this is still a rare outcome," said Dr. Nancy Messonnier, the director of the CDC's National Center for Immunization and Respiratory Diseases, on a conference call to reporters. [NBC]

January 7, 2021 — WHO warns of covid pandemic “tipping point” as variants spread across the United States. At this time states across the country are reporting increased numbers in new strain variant, B.1.1.7. “We were prepared for a challenging start to 2021 and it has been just that”, Dr. Hans Kluge, WHO Regional Director for Europe, said on Thursday during a virtual press briefing from Copenhagen. [United Nations News]

January 8, 2021 — Up to 80% of U.S. healthcare workers in some place are declining Covid-19 vaccine. The refusal is happening in nursing homes and to a lesser degree in hospitals over record speed developed shots and concerns of side effects. “I don’t think anyone wants to be a guinea pig,” said Dr. Stephen Noble, a 42-year-old cardiothoracic surgeon in Portland, Oregon, who is postponing getting vaccinated. “At the end of the day, as a man of science, I just want to see what the data show. And give me the full data.” [KATU]

False speculative reports of a new highly contagious U.S. ‘covid’ variant from White House coronavirus task force member, Dr. Deborah Birx was published by multiple news outlets. The hypothetical report was sent to state governors after Birx presented graphs of escalating cases in the country at a recent meeting. “This fall/winter surge has been at nearly twice the rate of rise of cases as the spring and summer surges. This acceleration suggests there may be a USA variant that has evolved here, in addition to the UK variant that is already spreading in our communities and may be 50% more transmissible,” the report read. “Aggressive mitigation must be used to match a more aggressive virus.” The CDC was dismayed by Brix’s report and tried to have the statements removed. [NYT]

Brisbane, Australia, the country’s third-largest city locks down 2 million people after a cleaner at a quarantine hotel contracts the new U.K. ‘covid’ strain that officials claim is more infectious. “If we are going to stop the spread of this infectious strain, this U.K. strain, we must act immediately,” Queensland Premier Annastacia Palaszczuk told media. [CBS]

January 9, 2021 — Tim Zook, an X-ray technologist at South Coast Global Medical Center in Santa Ana, dies at 60 years old, four days after receiving his second dose of the covid vaccine on January 5, 2021. A couple hours after getting the second Pfizer shot, Zook had trouble breathing and an upset stomach. Shortly after, he was in a medically induced coma and then placed on dialysis for kidney failure and low blood pressure. [Daily News]

'Covid' outbreak at The Commons on St. Anthony Nursing home in Auburn, New York infects 137 residents and kills 24. The outbreak started on December 21, 2020 as a wave of post-Thanksgiving 'covid' cases hit the county, according to Julie Sheedy, an official of Loretto which operates the 300-bed nursing home. "Our team is always deeply affected by any loss of life, and our hearts are with the families of these individuals," Sheedy said. [Syracuse]

January 10, 2021 — Anti-abortion faith leaders support 'covid' vaccines given their remote and indirect connection to lines of cells from aborted fetuses. One outspoken foe of abortion based in Dallas, Southern Baptist megachurch pastor Robert Jeffress, has called the vaccines a "present from God." "To ask God for help but then refuse the vaccine makes no more sense than calling 911 when your house is on fire, but refusing to allow the firemen in," Jeffress said via email. "There is no legitimate faith-based reason for refusing to take the vaccine." [PBS]

January 11, 2021 — Superintendent of an LA school district, Austin Michael Beutner declares students must get Covid-19 vaccine when available, despite experts' concern for lack of data on teens and kids. A COVID-19 vaccine requirement would be "no different than students who are vaccinated for measles or mumps," Beutner said in a pre-recorded briefing. Beutner compares the 'covid' shot to those who "are tested for tuberculosis before they come on campus. That's the best way we know to keep all on a campus safe." [LA Times]

January 12, 2021 — CDC changes guidelines for travel that requires negative 'covid' test to all passengers entering the United States. "Testing does not eliminate all risk," says CDC Director Robert R. Redfield, MD, "but when combined with a period of staying at home and everyday precautions like wearing masks and social distancing, it can make travel safer, healthier, and more responsible by reducing spread on planes, in airports, and at destinations." [CDC]

January 13, 2021 — World Health Organization issues new IFU (Instructions For Use) for polymerase chain reaction testing to clarify information for In Vitro Diagnostic Medical Device (IVD) users. The notice instructs users of IVDs to carefully follow the IFU to determine if manual adjustment of the PCR positivity threshold is recommended by the manufacturer. The WHO guidance further states that careful interpretation of weak positive results is needed and the cycle threshold (Ct) needed to detect virus is inversely proportional to the patient's viral load. Where test results do not correspond with the clinical presentation, a new specimen should be taken and retested using the same or different NAT technology. [WHO]

Alan Jope, the boss of one of the U.K.'s biggest companies, Unilever, states that his office workers will never return to their desks five days a week and that vaccination will not be mandatory. However, if people opt-out of inoculation they will be subjected to mandatory testing. Speaking on Wednesday at a Reuters conference, Jope said he did not expect office workers across western Europe and north America to return to work until at least April, and added that Unilever would use a "hybrid mode" of working between homes and offices after that. New York State Supreme Court Justice Henry Nowak rules in favor of restaurants suing NYS over shutting down businesses due to 'covid' by allowing them to reopen under New York State yellow zone restrictions. Tavern and restaurant owners challenged Governor Cuomo, the State Liquor Authority and the County Health Department to provide scientific proof and data that justifies the imposed restrictions initiated by the governor. " This ruling is a win for business owners and those that know the ridiculous cure of COVID closures crippling the economy is far worse than the disease. NYS must fully open businesses. Governor Cuomo and Mark Poloncarz needlessly and permanently damaged families and businesses," said Stefan Mychajliw, Erie County Comptroller [WIVB]

January 14, 2021 — President Joe Biden announces American Rescue Plan, expected to cost 1.9 trillion dollars to rollout a more robust vaccination plan and directly pay American families. The package includes $1,400 direct stimulus checks, which would supplement the $600 checks Congress passed late last year. Biden also proposes an additional $160 billion for a national vaccine program, including $20 billion for distribution, and an additional $50 billion for expanded testing. "It's not hard to see that we are in the middle of a once-in-several generations economic crisis, with a once-in-several generations public health crisis. A crisis of deep human suffering is in plain sight," Biden said. [NPR]

January 15, 2021 — The Norwegian Medicines Agency reports in a press release that 23 nursing home patients shortly died after receiving the first Pfizer/BioNTech shot for coronavirus triggering a warning from health officials for sick patients over the age of 80 years-old. Thirteen autopsies were performed suggesting that common side effects from the vaccine likely caused the high death toll. Sigurd Hortemo, chief physician at the Norwegian Medicines Agency, said that typical reactions to the vaccine — like fever and nausea — “may have contributed to the fatal outcome in some frail patients.” In result of the deaths, Norway’s health officials warn the shot may be too risky for people who are suffering from severe underlying conditions over the age of 80. United States Environmental Protection Agency announces the approval of an emergency exemption request for aerosol chemical, Grignard Pure, as an additional tool to fight against ‘covid’ in limited situations. The exemption has been granted to Georgia and Tennessee state governments to be used in certain indoor spaces where social distancing can be challenging. “Today, we are approving the first-ever airborne antiviral product that will help fight the spread of the novel coronavirus that causes COVID-19,” said EPA Administrator Andrew Wheeler. “There is no higher priority for EPA than protecting the health and safety of Americans and I want to thank those—both within EPA and those outside—who have worked to achieve this important milestone.” [EPA]

John Hopkins University economists run a survey that suggests common public health measures such as masking, social distancing, and telework may be impractical and inaccessible for those with lower income. People who made around $230,000 a year were as much as 54% more likely to increase these types of self-protective behaviors compared to people making about $13,000. “We need to understand these differences because we can wring our hands, and we can blame and shame, but in a way it doesn't matter," said Nick Papageorge, an associate professor of economics. "Policymakers just need to recognize who is going to socially distance, for how long, why, and under what circumstances to give us accurate predictions of how the disease will spread and help us establish policies that will be useful." [JHU]

January 16, 2021 — Fifty five Americans have died following mRNA 'covid' injections as Norway death toll rises to 29. The report prompts Norway to suggest the experimental injections maybe too risky for the elderly and terminal ill. Pfizer and BioNTech are working with the Norwegian regulator to investigate the deaths in Norway, Pfizer said in an e-mailed statement. The agency found that "the number of incidents so far is not alarming, and in line with expectations," Pfizer said. [Health Impact News]

Medical groups of doctors and nurses including the British Medical Association, Medical Protection Society, and Doctors' Association UK write to ministers asking for protection over unlawful killing charges where 'covid' treatment decisions are made under the pressures of the pandemic. The health organizations point out the warning from the prime minister in November that the NHS being overwhelmed would be a "medical and moral disaster", where "doctors and nurses could be forced to choose which patients to treat, who would live and who would die". The letter also stated: "With the chief medical officers now determining that there is a material risk of the NHS being overwhelmed within weeks, our members are worried that not only do they face being put in this position but also that they could subsequently be vulnerable to a criminal investigation by the police." January 17, 2021 — American Airlines expands access to the first U.S. digital health passport system called "VeriFLY", that confirms testing and other travel restrictions. According to a press release seen by Simple Flying, American Airlines VP of customer experience Julie Rath shares that her company is expanding the usage of the app to make international travel easier for its customers. The application allows flier to enter their destination and upload required documentation such as proof of a negative PCR test. "We've had the guidance of medical experts as we worked through our procedures. We work very closely with Vanderbilt University Medical Center. This is definitely not the time to ask Dr. Google what to do. So, we felt very fortunate to have their guidance as we worked through these procedures. And we also worked with other organizations, such as the Global Biorisk Advisory Council, to make sure that everything that we're doing is the gold

January 18, 2021 — Israel strikes deal with Pfizer that promises to trade vast amount of medical data in exchange for hard-to-get covid vaccines. Critics say the deal raises major ethical concerns, including possible privacy violations and a deepening of the global divide that enables wealthy countries to stockpile vaccines. Israeli Health Minister Yuli Edelstein told The Associated Press the government will turn over data to “see how it influences, first of all, the level of the disease in Israel, the possibility to open the economy, different aspects of social life, and whether there are any effects of the vaccination.” [PBS]

January 19, 2021 — Van Morrison pursues legal action over Northern Ireland’s ‘covid’ ban on live music in licensed venues. Van Morrison will ask high court in Belfast to review the ‘covid’ restrictions policy. “We will be seeking leave for judicial review to challenge the blanket ban on live music in licensed premises in Northern Ireland,” Rice said. “We’re not aware of any credible scientific or medical evidence to justify this particular blanket ban ... and we’re going to challenge this in the high court,” said solicitor Joe Rice. January 20, 2021 — China rushes to build massive covid quarantine camps to fit 4,000 people during recent covid outbreak. The camp is located on the outskirts of Shijiazhuang, the provincial capital of Hebei province, which surrounds the country’s capital, Beijing. Officials in Shijiazhuang, where the outbreak is centered, have initiated mass testing and strict lockdowns, moving entire villages into centralized quarantine facilities in a bid to curb the spread of the virus. The camp will also house close contacts of confirmed covid patients. [CNN]

Sleep experts recommend prioritizing sleep before getting a covid inoculation to achieve a better immune response. An article was published in Health Day News where several studies were cited to have found an association between sleep and vaccination response. "As COVID-19 vaccines are being distributed, it is of utmost importance that patients continue to prioritize their sleep to maintain optimal health," American Academy of Sleep Medicine (AASM) president Dr. Kannan Ramar said in an academy news release. "Getting sufficient, high-quality sleep on a regular basis strengthens your body's immune system and optimizes your response to a vaccine." [Health Day News]

Biden administration signs executive order to protect Federal workforce by requiring masks be worn. Section 7902(c) of title 5, United States Code, hereby orders based on the best available data and science-based public health measure to wear masks and social distance. Stated in section 1 to protect Federal workforce and individuals interacting with the Federal workforce to ensure the continuity of Government service and activities, individuals should all wear masks, and adhere to other public health measures, as provided in CDC guidelines.

January 21, 2021 — CDC stops reporting new data on experimental mRNA injection side effects. The agency claims there is no new data on the new experimental mRNA inoculations. At this point, deaths and adverse reactions are being reported all throughout the United States and yet no investigation is happening as to why? The last report on the experimental injections and the adverse side effects was from January 6, 2021, and only covered the first week of injections with the experimental Pfizer COVID mRNA shots, with an emphasis on allergic reactions and anaphylaxis shock. The report on January 6th did not cover the Moderna injections which have also received emergency use authorization by the FDA.*See January 16, 2021 entry. [Health Impact News]

Amazon offers to help newly elect President Joe Biden inoculate 100 million Americans during the first 100 days of presidency. The New York Times runs an article titled, Why Vaccines Alone Will Not End the Pandemic. It states a new model by scientists at Columbia University that millions more people will still be infected and become ill if they do not wear masks and maintain social distancing. Dr. Jeffrey Shaman, an epidemiologist at Columbia estimates that more than 105 million people have already been infected across the U.S., well above the number of cases that have been reported. And his projections show millions more infections are yet to come as the vaccine rolls out. “There are people who are going to want to relax the controls we have in place,” Dr. Shaman said. “If we start thinking, ‘We’ve got a vaccine, there’s a light at the end of the tunnel, we can stop in a couple of months’ — that’s way too soon.” [NYT]

Editor’s Note: Public health policy releases and the discussion of math modeling in the media continue to suggest — without scientific evidence — that a virus can be contained by lockdowns, and immunity and disruption of transmission can be achieved with the aggressive rollout of experimental mRNA products.

All this is suggested as true, even though organized, reproducible research has yet to be done to prove the efficacy of masking and lockdowns, and to answer the question of whether the experimental mRNA biologics can actually succeed in anything other than the previously observed “reduction of symptoms” in those affected by the disease process named covid-19.

It should not come as a surprise that Pfizer, one of the manufacturers of the experimental mRNA technology, has funded part of the effort to communicate this fuzzy science.

What should be quite shocking, however, is just how unrestrained is the spread of this particular non-fact of vaccine-conferred immunity.

It is never stated overtly, but it is regularly implied in missives from wide-ranging sources such as Rite Aid emails, NYS PSAs and in articles from the NYT. That these suggestions of any benefit beyond the reduction of symptoms are based on old data, gathered from the widespread use of fundamentally different biologic agents, against different pathogens — and all under the shadow of continued debate regarding the foundational assumptions of germ theory and virology as a whole — is not stated, either.

Rather, we see a suddenly sloppy application of old assumptions creeping in and being applied to the unobserved, and only mathematically described, novel virus.

Even with the debatable assumption that the genomic sequencing data on the pathogen is in any way an accurate place to start, there is no rational scientific reason to have it both ways: first, that novel viruses need new public policy and new tech to combat them; and also that old virology and related vaccine results apply by inference.

It is also interesting to note how often, and where, science professionals are acceptably quoted as using phrases like “gut check” and “intuitive sense” when being asked about the truth of such novel math modeling — which is predicting the future while depending only on debatable data from the past.

Current pressures inviting centralized “fact-checking” and censorship of “false information” which “goes against science” would seem to require statements be made from, and be based on, some foundation other than a “gut” sense. — efc

March 7, 2021 — The family of Drene Keyes, a 58-year-old Gloucester resident who died following a Pfizer shot had a private autopsy performed by her relatives investigating her death since the state of Virginia would not pay for it.

Roger Chesley, a reporter for the Virginia Mercury, published a follow up commentary on March 12, 2021 claiming the Virginia Health Commissioner Dr. Norman Oliver assured him the death of Drene Keyes was properly investigated by the state — even if there wasn't a full autopsy, but apparently one was performed.

An assistant medical examiner said the office tested for elevated tryptase levels, which can be higher when someone has died from anaphylaxis or a severe allergic reaction. Results showed near normal levels and the state in result determined the cause of death was due to 'covid' complications and underlying health conditions such as a hypertensive cardiovascular disease, obesity and diabetes which they wondered if Keyes even knew about.

CDC updates new guidelines that incentivizes vaccination by allowing only the fully vaccinated to attend indoor activities without wearing a mask or social distancing. The CDC said this new guidance is a "first step" to returning to everyday activities. [NPR]

Statement from Eric Francis Coppolino

"In response to a health situation that it handled badly and has deceived the public about ongoing, the US government has approved several experimental medical devices for emergency use only. According to the manufacturers, they are designed to reduce the severity of the disease claimed to be caused by a virus. Most people who are said to be infected experience no symptoms whatsoever and infection fatality overall is around 0.2% rather than the originally claimed 3.5%.

"These devices, which we are incorrectly calling vaccines, do not prevent or interrupt transmission of the claimed virus. Only the symptoms are reduced. The purpose of a vaccine in the classical sense is to interrupt transmission.

Your healthy cells are taught to produce coronavirus biological products. Then, your immune system responds to these chemicals by creating antibodies against a chemical made by your own cells. This is not a normal immune response but rather an autoimmune response.

"Hence, these are not vaccines in any conventional or legally defined sense of the word. Classical vaccines introduce an antigen in the form of attenuated (deactivated) virus, to which the healthy immune system responds by producing antibodies, which, according to vaccine theory, create immunity.

"These new-style mRNA injections instruct your cells to produce the antigen, in the form of a coronavirus spike protein. In other words, your healthy cells are taught to produce coronavirus biological products. Then, your immune system responds to these chemicals by creating antibodies against a chemical made by your own cells. This is not a normal immune response but rather an autoimmune response. It is therefore especially dangerous for those with autoimmune disease.

"Medical science acknowledges that there are many classes of people for whom immunization injections are contra-indicated, including those who have already experienced vaccine injury or who have a sibling who has.

This is an untested method of dealing with a claimed virus. It is an uncontrolled experiment, in that it does not actually end until 2022 or 2023 depending on the trial. Any member of the public who takes this injection is part of an experiment.

"It is vital to state there is no OFF switch to the mRNA process. Once it begins, there is no way to stop it.

"This is an untested method of dealing with a claimed virus. It is an uncontrolled experiment, in that it does not actually end until 2022 or 2023 depending on the trial. Any member of the public who takes this injection is part of an experiment. The control groups are now being injected, which makes the safety and efficacy data irrelevant as there is no basis for comparison. Note that the control group is one of the most important elements of the scientific method.

"Be aware that as of mid-February, there were more than 600 **reported** deaths and 12,000 reported injuries following injection, which represents only a small portion of those killed or injured as it is believed that only 1% of deaths and injuries are reported into the voluntary system, called VAERS.

"Further, should you be injured, you cannot sue the manufacturer. You will need to sue in a special Covid mitigation measures court, bringing a case against the Department of Health and Human Services, where you are not entitled to legal discovery or a jury trial." — efc

March 11, 2021 — Canada says the AstraZeneca shot is safe after Denmark and Norway suspend use after reports of blood clots.

"Health Canada is aware of reports of adverse events in Europe following immunization with the AstraZeneca COVID-19 vaccine, and would like to reassure Canadians that the benefits of the vaccine continue to outweigh its risks," the health department said in a statement.

On July 5, 2022 it was announced Canada will throw out 13.6 million doses of AstraZeneca since there are no takers and demand of the controversial experimental drug. Regardless of causing blood clots, the country managed to inoculate 2.3 million Canadians with at least one shot. Even though in July 2021 Canada promised to donate the rest of its supply, roughly 17.7 million doses, they will still have to throw away due to expired products. [The Guardian] [Reuters]

March 9, 2021 — Australian health minister Greg Hunt was admitted to the hospital with a suspected infection two days after receiving AstraZeneca Plc's 'covid' vaccine.

A couple months later on May 19, 2021, Greg Hunt makes comments on ABC that anyone uncertain about the AstraZeneca shot, there will be enough of Pfizer's mRNA shots to go around. "Right now, we want to encourage everybody over 50 to be vaccinated as early as possible," Hunt told ABC News Breakfast on Thursday.

The comment caused confusion among Australians over whether they should wait to be inoculated or just go ahead and get jabbed regardless of their blood clot concerns. Dr. Omar Khorshid of The Australian Medical Association [AMA] clarifies Hunt's comments by stating that the message has always been to not wait and to get vaccinated right away.

Khorshid comments that Greg Hunt should have mentioned that if people over 70 years-old refuse AstraZeneca shots they will then be waiting until the end of the year for a replacement jab. In other words, take a chance with your life and get blood clots now or wait for another shot to potentially give you blood clots and myocarditis later. [The Guardian] [Reuters]

Scientists from across the world believe 'covid' is causing diabetes. Professor Francesco Rubino from King's College London leads a full investigation into the possible covid and diabetes link after seeing a rise in both type 1 and type 2 cases. Doctors even consider the possibility of covid inducing an entirely new form of diabetes. "Over the last few months, we've seen more cases of patients that had either developed diabetes during the Covid-19 experience, or shortly after that. We are now starting to think the link is probably true – there is an ability of the virus to cause a malfunctioning of sugar metabolism," said Rubino. If there was a biological link, it would be difficult to prove without a substantial database, he noted. "We said it's

July 12, 2021 — In an effort to head off rogue scientists conducting experiments with the human genome, a committee of experts working with the World Health Organization announce stronger limits on powerful human gene editing methods after two years of deliberation. "I am very supportive," said Dr. Leonard Zon, a gene therapy expert at Harvard University who was not a member of the committee, but called it a "thoughtful group." Recent gene-editing results are "impressive," he said, and the committee's recommendations will be "very important for therapy in the future." The guidelines were prompted by the case of He Jiankui, a scientist in China who used CRISPR technology to alter the DNA of human embryos. He Jiankui attempted the editing with a goal to alter DNA of babies so they were unable to contract H.I.V., however a court in China determined he forged ethics documents and misled subjects. The Foo Fighters noted in their announcement they have "made every effort to follow CDC covid protocols and local laws" as they returned to performing. USA Today's coverage of the

Fighters announcement broke down the current trend in alleged U.S. covid cases by reporting:

The nation is averaging about 25,300 new cases per day, more than double the 11,300 per day the week of June 22. The total rose in 48 states – all but Iowa and South Dakota, though the totals represent only about 10% of the numbers being reported in the worst week in January. Experts attribute the rise in cases to low vaccination rates, the relaxation of mask rules and other precautions, and the swift spread of the more-contagious delta variant.

August 24, 2021 — Pfizer CEO Albert Bourla acknowledges there will be future covid variants that will be resistant to current vaccines on the market. “Every time that the variant appears in the world, our scientists are getting their hands around it,” Bourla told Fox News in an interview. “They are researching to see if this variant can escape the protection of our vaccine. We haven’t identified any yet, but we believe that it is likely that one day, one of them will emerge.” While stating he was “quite confident” Pfizer vaccine could neutralize new mutations based on encouraging lab results he also raised the “fundamental question” of how likely it is a variant will emerge that is vaccine-resistant.

“Theoretically, it’s a very possible scenario. If you protect a very big part of the population, and if there is a strain that emerges that can use this pool of population to replicate while the current strains cannot, obviously this will overtake the original. So it’s not a certainty, but it is now, I believe, a likely scenario,” he said. [The Epoch Times]

A 15 year-old girl was allegedly forced to wear an ankle ‘covid’ tracking monitor for volleyball practice at Eatonville High School in Washington state in order to participate in team sports. The device was developed by a

August Summary — Editor's Note: August is when we start seeing a major pushback from the once esteemed "essential workers" losing their jobs for refusing to comply with forced experimental medical procedures. Firefighters, police officers, marines, nurses and teachers all show up by the thousands to protest against mandates. U.S. governors and globally are requiring people be inoculated with the covid vaccines if they want to participate in any part of society or even run a business. Thankfully, lawsuits are filed against such tyrannical control and some win, bringing awareness to the illegality of disregarding bodily autonomy.

We also see the sketchy full approval by The U.S. Food and Drug Administration for the Pfizer/BioNTech covid shot for people 16 years and older, marking it the first covid vaccine to be approved by the FDA that sets the stage for more enforced mandates. Meanwhile, the decision was made despite no public discussion or formal advisory committee meeting held to discuss data. The FDA also switches the legal name of the approved shot known before as Pfizer-BioNTech to be marked as "Cominarty." The FDA claims the two shots can be used interchangeably. Under Emergency Use Authorization the vaccine continues to be available for individuals 12 through 15 years of age, despite VAERS reporting of thousands of vaccine related injuries and deaths. Also noted are numerous claims from whistleblowers like Karen Kingston and researchers of the poisonous chemicals such as Graphene Oxide being added to the mRNA technology shots.

Lastly, another major development is the increase of the once deemed "breakthrough" cases happening of vaccinated people testing positive for 'covid'. Despite a rise in vaccinated people getting sick for 'covid', Dr. Fauci and others still call 'covid' a pandemic of the unvaccinated without any scientific evidence to substantiate those ridiculous claims, thus dividing and confusing people. August is when contradictions start to become way more obvious, well for those with their eyes open. — mmd

“For the time being, there are few figures that show the evolution of possible indicators such as the intake of antidepressants and anxiolytics or the number of suicides. But it is especially important to place mental well-being in the corona crisis in its historical continuity. Mental health had been declining for decades. There has long been a steady increase in the number of depression and anxiety problems and the number of suicides. And in recent years there has been an enormous growth in absenteeism due to psychological suffering and burnouts. "Currently, there is only one state-paid judge statewide out of compliance with our vaccine mandate policies," said Unified Court System spokesman Lucian Chalfen. "If it works for her and she can participate remotely, I don't see the problem," said state Court of Appeals spokesman Gary Spencer, who declined to comment on her vaccination status. " We do

Project Veritas releases fourth video of its covid investigative series that exposes three Pfizer officials, Nick Karl, Chris Croce and Rahul Khandke, saying natural antibodies offer equal or better protection against the alleged virus than drug shots. Nick Karl is one of the scientists who works in the production of Pfizer’s covid shot. “When somebody is naturally immune -- like they got COVID -- they probably have more antibodies against the virus...When you actually get the virus, you’re going to start producing antibodies against multiple pieces of the virus...So, your antibodies are probably better at that point than the [COVID] vaccination,” Karl said. November Summary — Editor's Note: We see major pushbacks this month from citizens around the globe in response to executive threats over vaccine mandates. Especially considering FDA asks federal judge for 55 years to release requested FOIA data on Pfizer's 'covid' vaccine. A regional director at a Pfizer vaccine testing site blows the whistle on data integrity based on falsified data, unblinding patients and employing inadequately training vaccinators. Meanwhile, U.S. Senator Ron Johnson holds panel on 'covid' vaccine injuries where an airplane pilot states he suffered an Eustachian tube dysfunction and elevated intracranial pressure following Pfizer vaccination, a father from Austin, Texas, loses son from myocarditis following Pfizer vaccination and many other accounts of vaccine injury and misrepresentation of data integrity during clinical trials. Controversial ads surface as Pfizer uses taxpayer dollars to portray kids as "superheroes" with "superpowers" who signed up for vaccine clinical trials. Sesame Street's, Big Bird tweets he got jabbed as well. Major discrepancies are found in CDC reporting of "fully vaccinated" Americans as well as 'covid' death toll numbers. States with the highest vaccination rates like Vermont somehow have the highest 'covid' rates. Hospital heads push vaccinations as a means to reduce hospitalizations and stressed, understaffed health care systems. Austria threatens lockdowns and possible prison time for only the unvaccinated as Israel announces the world's first ever ban of all foreigners entering their country. Towards the end of the month the WHO officially labels "omicron" as the variant of major concern and a slew of executive powers are questioned under law. The world's first ever vaccine murder case against Bill Gates is filed in India's High Court. About 1,400 flights entering, leaving or flying within the United States were canceled and about 5,900 were delayed Sunday, according to the tracking website FlightAware. [USA Today]

December 27, 2021 — Dr. Anthony Fauci states in an interview on MSNBC's "Morning Joe," the federal government should seriously consider requiring 'covid' vaccines for domestic flights. "When you make vaccinations a requirement, that's another incentive to get more people vaccinated. If you want to do that with domestic flights, I think that's something that seriously should be considered," said Fauci. On the other hand, the travel industry expressed opposition to a domestic travel vaccine mandate and President Joe Biden said "it's been considered, but the recommendation I've gotten, it's not necessary." December 28, 2021 — Sydney, Australia testing lab, SydPath issues statement confirming that 486 of an additional 950 people who had been sent a text message "prematurely" had been validated as 'covid' positive. The SMS told all 950 recipients they were negative for the virus when they were allegedly positive. "Once again, we are sincerely sorry for this error and acknowledge the significant impact it has had on those involved," a statement from SydPath read. "In order to contend with the major increase in volume of tests SydPath had recently moved from an automated system to a manual system to expedite the release of negative test results. "Unfortunately during this manual process a simple data processing error was made which led to the wrong test results being released. We have reverted to our automated systems to ensure this type of error cannot happen again."

U.S. flu cases are suddenly on the rise after the lowest flu season in decades when 'covid' pandemic hit. The 2020-2021 was the lowest flu season with some major cities saying they saw zero cases of flu. Experts claim 'covid' prevention measures such as lockdowns, social-distancing, masking and not traveling resulted in less cases of influenza virus. "This is setting itself up to be more of a normal flu season," said Lynnette Brammer, who tracks flu-like illnesses for the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. The childhood deaths, Brammer said, are "unfortunately what we would expect when flu activity picks up. It's a sad reminder of how severe flu can be."

Health officials claim pediatric hospitalizations in New York City have risen nearly five-fold from the start of December due to the 'omicron' variant that continues to sweep the nation. "We need to get child vaccinations up. We need to get them higher than they are, particularly in the 5- to 11-year-old age group," said Mary T. Bassett, the acting commissioner of the New York State Department of Health. "The vaccine is so much safer than getting the virus itself," New York Presbyterian chief pediatrician Dr. Sallie Permar told CBS News correspondent Meg Oliver. "And so giving your child the vaccine keeps them safer than letting them get infected with this virus without any immunity from a vaccine." [CBS News]

December 29, 2021 — U.S. 'covid' cases soar to the highest level since the start of pandemic at over 265,000 cases per day on average. The surge comes after more than a year since the "safe and effective" rollout of mRNA injections and is allegedly a result of the highly contagious 'omicron' variant. Dr. Anthony Fauci, the top U.S. infectious-disease expert, said that there is no need to cancel small home gatherings among vaccinated and boosted family and friends. But "if your plans are to go to a 40- to 50-person New Year's Eve party with all the bells and whistles and everybody hugging and kissing and wishing each other a happy new year, I would strongly recommend that this year we not do that," he said.

December 30, 2021 — Israel becomes one of the first countries to authorize a fourth vaccine for residents who are most vulnerable to 'covid.'

Nachman Ash, the director general of Israel's Health Ministry, announced the decision at a press conference, saying the doses would initially be given to those with weakened immune systems. "We will continue to track the data on a daily basis and we will see if we need to broaden this recommendation to more of the population," he said. The decision for another booster jab comes despite the highly vaccinated country still seeing a wave of 'covid' variants such as 'delta'. Officials also warn of the fast-spreading 'omicron'. December Summary — Editor's Note: Around the holiday season we see the hype of colder weather collide with social gatherings and travel pushed by officials as key reasons why more people should get inoculated. Fauci suggests mandating 'covid' shots for domestic travel. The flu makes a comeback after taking the year off during the 2020-2021 season. FDA approves new anti-viral drug cocktail pills from Pfizer and Merck. Meanwhile, a newly released confidential Pfizer document exposes FDA cover-up of vaccine related deaths in early 2021 — the vaccines were killing thousands of people and causing spontaneous abortions while damaging three times more women than men. Vaccine related injuries make global headlines from Vietnam to New Zealand thus providing even more evidence of the dangerous potential side effects of these experimental mRNA shots, especially for teens. On the testing front, FBI warns a Chinese genetics testing company, Fulgent Genetics is most likely sharing Americans' health data with China. Interesting inaccuracies in 'covid' testing continues as U.S. FDA alerts clinical laboratory staff and health care providers that false reactivity, or "false-positive", Rapid Plasma Reagin (RPR; non-treponemal) test results, when using the Bio-Rad Laboratories BioPlex 2200 Syphilis Total & RPR kit, can occur in some people who received a COVID-19 vaccine. Sydney, Australia testing lab, SydPath issues statement confirming that 486 of an additional 950 people who had been sent a text message "prematurely" had been validated as 'covid' positive. Upheaval by people protesting against mandates break out all over the world in Vienna, New Zealand, Guadeloupe and Martinique making it increasingly hard for dictators to push restrictions and punishments. Los Angeles school system pushes back vaccine deadline due to thousands of students still being unvaccinated as parents file lawsuits for inoculating their children without consent. It's clear this holiday season, no matter how much heads of state are trying to sell miracle cures for 'covid', not everyone is buying it. — mmd
